

Horizon 2020 Marie Skłodowska-Curie European Joint Doctorate Programme urbanHist apply for 4 PhD positions now!

The European Joint Doctorate Programme urbanHist | 20th Century European Urbanism announces another 4 PhD positions running for 36 months between 2017 and 2020 at 4 European universities in Germany, Slovakia, Spain and Sweden.

UrbanHist is an integrated research and doctorate programme funded by the European Union in the Horizon 2020 Marie Skłodowska-Curie Action. It aims to develop and sustainably promote a joint understanding of 20th century European Urbanism. UrbanHist offers a unique opportunity to 15 early stage researchers to investigate various topics related to comprehensive studies on the history of european urbanism in the twentieth century. The 15 early stage researchers will receive multidisciplinary training from high-profile academics and practitioners and will be awarded a double degree of two of the four universities. For the duration of 36 months, they will be employed at the hosting university. The application process for 4 of these 15 positions is starting now.

The programme is run by a consortium of universities in co-operation with institutions and companies operating in the fields of planning, urban design, architecture, management, history etc. The Consortium is formed by Bauhaus-Universität Weimar (Germany), Blekinge Tekniska Högskola (Sweden), Universidad de Valladolid (Spain) and Univerzita Pavla Jozefa Šafárika v Košiciach (Slovakia). At each of these universities, 4 respectively 3 PhD positions are offered, you find an overview attached.

For more information on the research fields included in the UrbanHist programme and on each position, on application requirements as well as on the conditions the programme provides, please check our website at www.urbanhist.eu.

Please note: in the Horizon 2020 European Joint Doctorates, two main conditions apply:

- the programme addresses only early stage researchers, which means within the first four years (full-time equivalent) of research activity, including the period of research training. Researchers who are already holding a doctoral degree are not eligible.
- the European transnational mobility policy applies: researchers must not have resided or carried out their main activity (work, studies, etc.) in the country they apply to for more than 12 months in the 3 years immediately before the recruitment.

In case of any further questions please do not hesitate to contact the consortium via: urbanhist@archit.uni-weimar.de or the respective colleagues in charge for a specific research field.

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 721933.
